Claude Martin
(1735 – 1800)

Major General Claude Martin was the Founder of La Martiniere College. He was born in 1735 in Lyons, France. He sailed to Pondicherry in 1751. By a mixture of skill, luck and hard work, became a richest European in Lucknow,

La Martiniere College occupies Claude Martin's palatial country home known as Constantia. His personal motto Labore et Constantia (Toil and Fidelity), is the motto of the College. The College was established in 1845.

Claude Martin died on 13 September, 1800. The day is commemorated as Founder's Day. He is buried in the crypt of Constantia.
